

Employee of the Week

(Words and music by Joshua Starmer, copyright 2017)

The bossman, took me to the side

D A

He said "There's no good way to say what I must say

D A

To say what I must say"

D

So I went to my desk and packed it all away

I packed up my life and put it in a box

I put it in a box.

Then I walked to the door. Time to say goodbye.

One last walk through and nothing else has changed

Nothing else has changed

Then I heard a voice call. Calling out my name.

"Before you leave here, there's one last thing to say

One last thing to say"

G A

"I thought that you would want to know

D A

That every one took a vote

G

You're employee

A

You're employee of the week"
